Scholarship Application

The purpose of the F.O.C.U.S. Program is to provide an inclusive, accessible, and productive career education program for college aged students with Intellectual Disabilities in the Las Vegas valley that promotes self-determination, community engagement and partnerships, job readiness and transitions to adulthood through person-centered planning, inclusive teaching, evidence-based research, and positive behavior supports.

1. Deadline for scholarship application is Thursday, April 1st at 4pm
2. Please apply for one or more scholarships (when available)
3. Only completed applications will be accepted. DO NOT LEAVE ITEMS BLANK
4. One letter of recommendation (from non-relative)
5. Copy of W-9 from previous year *Black out Social Security Number W-9 will be shredded immediately after consideration
6. Priority will be given to those who have never attended F.O.C.U.S. or have never received a scholarship previously
7. Priority is also given to those who show financial need or may be unable to meet the financial requirement for attendance (tuition and program fee)

*Scholarship amounts vary depending need and may not fully cover tuition and program fee. Parent/student is responsible for remaining tuition and/or program fee.

The goal of the F.O.C.U.S. Program is for each student to earn a 2-year Occupational and Career Life Studies Certificate. Scholarships may or may not be available to cover tuition and program fee over the 2-year program.
