Description of Instructional Procedures:
In-class instructional formats for this course include lecture and discussions; collaborative/cooperative learning activities, individual/small group problem solving and contextual applications; role-play/simulations; media presentations, community resource personnel/panel discussions, and student presentations.

Out-of-class learning activities may include, but are not limited to the following learning activities: assigned readings; a video project/presentation; journal reviews/presentations; and assessment of infant and toddler materials.
Assignments and Evaluation Procedures

1. A Developmental Kit will be designed and presented by each student. Students are required to present 2 age appropriate materials for the following age groups: 6 months, 12 months, 18 months, 24 months, and 36 months. Each item must have an index card (typed) describing the material, it’s use, and the supervision it requires. (25 points) CCL

2. The Video Project/Presentation will be completed in collaboration with other students in the class (size of each group should have 3 to 4 people). The video should be 15 minutes in total length, depicting age appropriate behaviors across domains. Students are required to locate a child age 6 to 36 months who exhibits age appropriate behaviors for completion of this assignment. (25 points)

3. Preparation of two (2) journal reviews along with presentation of information to the class will be completed. One article should focus on infant/toddler developmental issues and the other article should focus on a disability encountered with young children. A copy of the article must accompany the typed journal review. (10 points each)

4. Final Examination (30 points)

Administrative Requirements:

1. Attendance and participation in learning activities (in class and outside of class) that include discussion, role-play and simulations, individual and collaborative learning/problem solving processes. Note: regular attendance, completion of assigned reading(s), and participation in class is expected (after 2 absences, 5 points will be deducted from the final grade for each absence).

2. All assignments are due on the day indicated in the course schedule. One letter grade will be deducted for each day an assignment is late. Missed assignments cannot be made up and will result in a score of 0 (zero).

3. A grade of “incomplete” will be granted only if the student has:
   a. Completed 75% of the course,
   b. Earned a grade of “C” or better at the time the incomplete grade is requested
   c. The requested incomplete grade for personal or academic reasons is deemed extraordinary by the instructor, and
   d. The student and instructor must negotiate a due date for completion of the course assignments. If course requirements are not completed by the agreed upon date, the earned grade will be submitted. There is not grading penalty for completing the course by the agreed upon date.

4. All assignments MUST be typed and double-spaced. Work submitted should reflect college-level expectations in terms of scope, depth, writing mechanics, appearance, and APA 5th Edition style (where appropriate).

Performance Assessment and Grading Policy

Refer to the assignment rubrics for specifics.

Disability Resource Center
The Americans with Disabilities Act mandates accessibility in all aspects of the learning environment. "If you have a documented disability that may require assistance, you will need to contact Disability Services (DS) for coordination in your academic accommodations. Disability Services is located within Learning Enhancement Services (LES), in the Reynolds Student Services Complex (SSC), Room 137. The phone number is 895-0866 or TDD 895-0652. For additional information about Disability Services please refer to their website at: http://www.unlv.edu/studentlife/les

Academic Integrity Statement
UNLV and its College of Education demand a high level of scholarly behavior and academic honesty on the part of students. Violations by students exhibiting dishonesty while carrying out academic assignments and procedural steps for dealing with academic integrity are delineated in the Handbook of Regulations Governing Probation and Suspension Within The College of Education. This publication may be found in the Curriculum Materials Library (CML – CEB 101), or the Office of the Dean of the College of Education (CEB 301). To help familiarize yourself with copyright and fair use policies, the University encourages you to visit its copyright web page at: http://www.unlv.edu/committees/copyright.

Religious Holidays
It is UNLV's policy to give students who miss class because of observance of religious holidays the opportunity to make up missed work. Students are responsible for notifying the instructor no later than the last day of registration for the semester or summer term of plans to observe the holiday.

Collection of Student Assignments for Accreditation Purposes
Assignments completed for this course may be used as evidence of candidate learning in national, regional, and state accreditation reports of COE programs. Names and other identifying elements of all assignments will be removed before being included in any report. Students who do not wish their work to be used for accreditation purposes must inform the instructor in writing by the end of late registration. Your participation and cooperation in the review of COE programs is appreciated. Thank you.
