Assignments, evaluation procedures, and grading policy

1. Participation (15%)
   This portion of your grade is based on attendance and participation. Each day that you are in class, the entire session, you will earn 5 points. A pattern of tardies and/or leaving early will result in a deduction of attendance points. It is important that you are in class, on time, and for the entire time.

   There will be individual and group activities in which your team will be counting on your participation. On occasion, activities will be collected as a means of formative evaluation – to check your level of understanding and to determine if you are keeping up with the readings. These periodic checks will be incorporated into your participation grade. You will not be able to earn credit for missed in-class activities. Activities that are collected for participation points will be graded on the following scale:
   - 5 points: (complete, accurate or mostly accurate)
   - 0 points (50% or more incomplete and/or not accurate and/or not turned in and/or judgment of instructor)

2. Assignments (15%)

   Two Teacher Interviews (10%, 25 points)
   You will interview one general education teacher and one special education teacher about their experiences working with students who have disabilities and their ideas about inclusion. You will turn in the following: 1) list of questions, 2) interview notes, and 3) a 3-4 page summary of their combined responses and your impressions and reflections.

   Summary Outline:
   1) Provide a brief description of each of the teachers you interviewed (use initials, type of classroom, type of students, teaching history)
   2) Synthesize 3-4 answers (or practices or beliefs) that are similar between the two teachers.
   3) Synthesize 3-4 answers (or practices or beliefs) that are different between the two teachers.
   4) Your impressions or reflections of their answers. What did you learn?
Two Videos and Guided Notes (5%, 10 points each)
You will be asked to watch two videos outside of class on topics relative to special education populations. You complete guided notes for each video. The videos will be on reserve for you in the CML. The titles of the two videos are: FAT City (CML) and Getting the Most Out of Your Paraeducators (CML).

3. Experience Project (20%, 30 points)
Students will choose one of the following options for their experience project. The experience will culminate in a 3-4 page paper. Guidelines for the paper, for each option, will be handed out in class. Students must select their choice by the second session.

- Choice One: Special Education Classroom Observation
Students who choose this option will observe students with disabilities in a public or preschool setting and must spend a minimum of 10 hours in the classroom. In order to do this project, students must have approval from the school district or preschool ahead of time. The instructor will work with you to get approval and an assigned classroom. Students will keep a log of time spent, including teacher signature, and notes on activities, setting, students (no names please). (YOU ARE ENCOURAGED TO CHOOSE THIS OPTION)

- * Choice Two: Volunteer
Students may choose to volunteer to work with adults with developmental disabilities in the community. The City of Las Vegas has a program through which you may volunteer, or you may find a group home or other organization on your own. Students must spend a minimum of 10 hours in the volunteer experience. Students will keep a time log, including signature, notes of activities and settings, and information about the adults in the program (no names please). Must be approved by instructor.

- * Choice Three: Buddy Project
Students who choose the buddy project will spend a minimum of 10 hours with their buddy in the community during the semester. Buddies may be children or adults with disabilities. A journal chronicling the activities of each outing should be kept. Must be approved by instructor.
* Choice Four: Personal Perspective
Students who choose to gain a personal perspective of what it is like to be a person with a disability will choose one disability from the approved list (deafness, physical impairment) and spend a minimum of 10 hours experiencing the disability. Notes of your experiences should be kept. Must be approved by instructor.

* Council for Learning Disabilities…Volunteers Needed in Fall 2004. You may use five of the ten volunteer hours to work at the CLD conference, October 7-9. Activities may include, but are not limited to, working registration, introducing speakers, and/or stuffing folders. More information will be discussed in class.

4. Exams (4) (50% of your grade)
You will take four exams throughout the semester. The format of the exams will be any combination of the following: Multiple Choice, Matching, T/F, and Short Answer. Exams will cover lectures, the text, activities, videos, and guest speakers. You can drop your lowest exam score at the end of the semester. Therefore, only 3 exams will be calculated in the exam portion of your grade, 50%.

Administrative Requirements

1. Regular attendance and participation in class activities are critical components of the learning objectives outlined in this course. You will be expected to do the following: attend each session, read the assigned readings prior to each session, actively participate in individual and/or collaborative in-class activities, and engage in discussions.

In the case that you are absent, it is your responsibility to meet with the instructor BEFORE THE NEXT SESSION to pick up the handouts or ask a peer for a copy.

2. All assignments are due at the beginning of class on the day indicated in the course schedule. One letter grade will be deducted for each day an assignment is late.

3. If a situation arises and you know ahead of time that you will have to miss a class, it is your responsibility to do the following: contact me ahead of time; arrange for a peer to pick up assignments and take notes (or arrange to talk or meet with me prior to the next session), and turn in any assignments that are due on that day ahead of time. If you know you are going to be absent during an exam, you must make arrangements with me to take the exam ahead of time. If you are absent during an exam day, you must contact me one day following the exam and make arrangements to take the exam within two days after the exam day. Otherwise, a grade of zero will be given for the missed exam.

4. All assignments MUST be typed and double-spaced, 12 inch font. Work submitted should reflect undergraduate level expectations in terms of scope, depth, writing mechanics, appearance, and APA 5th Edition style where appropriate. This excludes assignments presented in a technology-based format (e.g., web-quest or Power Point).

Learning Enhancement Services (LES)
Learning Enhancement Services (LES) houses Disability Services, Learning Strategies, and Supplemental Instruction. If you have a documented disability that may require assistance, you will need to contact LES for coordination in your academic accommodations. LES is located in the Reynolds Student Services Complex, Suite 137. The phone number is 895-0866 or TDD 702-895-0652. You may also visit our website at: http://www.unlv.edu/studentlife/les

Academic Integrity Statement
UNLV and its College of Education demand a high level of scholarly behavior and academic honesty on the part of students. Violations by students exhibiting dishonesty while carrying out academic assignments and procedural steps for dealing with academic integrity are delineated in the Handbook of Regulations Governing Probation and Suspension Within The College of Education. This publication may be found in the Curriculum Materials Library (CML- CEB 101), or the Office of the Dean of the College of Education (CEB 301).

Religious Holidays
It is UNLV’s policy to give students who miss class because of observance of religious holidays the opportunity to make up missed work. Students are responsible for notifying the instructor no later than the last day of registration for the semester or summer term of plans to observe the holiday.

Collection of Assignments for Accreditation Purposes
Assignments completed for this course may be used as evidence of candidate learning in national, regional and state accreditation reports of COE approved programs. Names and other identifying elements of all assignments will be removed before being included in any report. Students who do not wish their work to be used for accreditation purposes must inform the instructor in writing by the end of late registration. Your participation and cooperation in the review of COE programs is appreciated. Thank You.
